THE STORY SHARING GAME (10) SCORING QUESTIONS

To Reveal The StoryTellers Who Moved Us Most

Each Player Starts With (10) Chips Or Points

READ ALOUD & ANSWER QUESTIONS

Every player repeats the question aloud, and then answers by giving the appropriate player (1) of their chips and a brief explanation of what in the player's story impressed them or caught their attention (per question being asked).

1. Whose story surprised you the most?
2. Which StoryTeller best used their voice and body when telling their story to pull you in / entertain?
3. Which story made you think of one of your own memories?
4. Who included the most interesting details about their story's time period, setting, props, and/or wardrobe (so you could see their story) ?
5. Who described the most vivid characters who you can easily imagine as people (if the story includes people you know, imagine only knowing them as described in story – did the storyteller create a vivid impression of them?).
6. Who amused (charmed) you most / made you laugh?
7. Who told the most emotional / touching story?
8. Who had the best line or description that you still remember clearly?
9. Which story can you imagine most as a short film?
10. Which story left you with the most questions? This point goes to:
 - a) the StoryTeller who was the most confused / awkward when sharing their story. Give them a chip to celebrate their playing the Game and to challenge them to play again ! (It's the duty of all StoryTellers to encourage the development of other StoryTellers !)
 - Or if none of the stories were confusing, then the chip goes to:
 - a) the Storyteller who told the most intriguing story that had you wondering about what happened before and / or after the time of the story.
